

Boutique yacht to offer seasonal service from Port of Palm Beach

Riviera Beach, FL. - January 10, 2022 – For the first time in more than 15 years, SeaDream Yacht Club will offer seven-day voyages from the Port of Palm Beach to the Bahamas and Caribbean. SeaDream II, one of SeaDream Yacht Club’s luxury, twin mega-yachts provides a maximum of 112 guests a unique experience sailing the less-visited, intimate ports in the Caribbean (and Mediterranean during the summer months).

“The Port of Palm Beach is a great fit for SeaDream Yacht Club because of our berth availability and proximity to the Caribbean Basin,” said Port Executive Director Manuel Almira.

There are two round-trip Palm Beach voyages scheduled from Port of Palm Beach on January 16 and 23. An additional voyage is scheduled for January 30 that culminates in San Juan, Puerto Rico. The SeaDream II sailings from Palm Beach include port of calls in the Bahamas, Dominican Republic, and Turks and Caicos Islands. Other Caribbean itineraries offered by SeaDream Yacht Club include the Leeward and Windward Islands, and the Lesser Antilles.

Seadream Yacht Club has planned a return to Palm Beach in April 2023, with a voyage sailing April 8 from San Juan, PR to Palm Beach, a round-trip Palm Beach voyage sailing April 15, 2023 and a transatlantic crossing departing Palm Beach to Lisbon on April 22, 2023.

SeaDream II, which accommodates a maximum of 56 couples and 95 crew members, arrived at the Port on January 10 for a private charter.
